MINISTRIES

Tyler Gaulden is a pastor, speaker, and broadcaster whose passion is to reach the masses with the message of Jesus through every available medium. Originally from North Carolina, Tyler answered the call to preach at age 18 and has spent the past two decades proclaiming the gospel—first from the pulpit, then through television, and now online to millions. He leads Hillcrest Baptist Church located in the suburbs of Nashville and is the founder of “Unspeakable Joy,” a media movement that began as a small TV program and has grown into a thriving digital ministry. Tyler’s viral social media presence—especially on TikTok—was an unexpected gift during the pandemic, now serving as a cornerstone of his mission. Above all, Tyler is a family man, husband to Erica, and father to Mason and Ella Faith. His goal is simple: to lift Jesus and make Him known, one message, one platform, and one soul at a time. www.tylergaulden.com.

PASTOR TYLER GAULDEN'S
NEW BOOK, “PRAY NOW”

Pastor and author Tyler Gaulden has announced the release of his newest work, Pray Now, a transformative exploration of prayer that unpacks and reinterprets the timeless lines of the Lord’s Prayer. This deeply personal guide invites readers to rediscover the meaning behind each phrase—from “Our Father” to “deliver us from evil”—and to apply these truths to modern life through reflection, narrative, and practical prayer exercises.

“I wrote Pray Now to make the Lord’s Prayer more than words—so believers can experience its power in every moment,” Gaulden explains. “Each phrase is an invitation—from intimacy with God to bold discovery—and I hope readers will pray through it line by line as they grow deeper in their faith.”
